Exegetical Theology

Logos Institute

The Logos Institute aims to explore the central claims of Christianity through dialogue with Biblical exegesis and analytic, philosophical theology

Essay Competition

Are you considering undergraduate studies in theology or religious studies? If so, the Logos Institute for Analytic and Exegetical Theology at the University of St Andrews has an exciting announcement: we will be holding an essay competition, offering 10 prizes of £150 plus an all-expenses paid spring school at the University of St Andrews 6-9 April 2020. Furthermore, the top essay will be awarded a full fee scholarship to study theology at the University of St Andrews (subject to passing the normal entrance requirements for the programme) as well as £2,000 towards their living expenses. More information can be found at logos.wp.st-andrews.ac.uk

Essay & Application

In order to participate interested parties should submit the following by 15 December 2019:

- 1) A 1,500 word essay addressing one of the three prompts found on the website
- 2) A completed application, which can be downloaded at logos.wp.st-andrews.ac.uk

Essays and applications must be submitted by email to logos@st-andrews.ac.uk with the subject line "Essay Competition 2019."

Summer School

The summer school will take place 6-9 April 2020 at the University of St Andrews. Travel, accommodation, and meals will be provided for the 10 winners. The summer school will be taught by members of the Logos Institute within St Mary's College, and will discuss a range of topics, including the existence and nature of God, theology, biblical studies, foundations of the Christian faith, and the relationship between science and faith.
